

Herter Calls on Russia to Help Make Progress

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, chairman of the U.S. delegation to the Geneva conference on the "Big Four" meeting, said today that the United States is anxious to make the necessary progress here, Herter said, at the Big Four meeting. "But the Western powers cannot make it alone," Herter addressed the third session of the foreign ministers meeting today, which was delayed two days while Gromyko fought for increased status for East Germany and conference membership for Poland and Czechoslovakia.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP)—The Western foreign ministers showed signs today of becoming fed up with the Soviet Union's insistence on adding more "Red" nations to the Geneva conference.
U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter planned to use his power as today's chairman to try to open the East-West debate on peace was called.
Aides said privately they were not sure he could pull off this maneuver unless the Soviet campaign suddenly eased up—something they did not expect.
A French spokesman said "we think this afternoon's session will be wasted on further argument over the Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's proposal to give Poland and Czechoslovakia seats at the conference round table."
Herter, France's Maurice Couve de Murville and Britain's Selwyn Lloyd all turned down the proposition Tuesday.

Beauty Queen Jailed for Robberies

LITTLETON, Colo. (AP)—A 20-year-old girl was in jail today, only 10 months after she was crowned a state beauty queen.
Dixie Ann Gottfried had signed statements admitting two armed robberies last Monday, according to sheriff's investigator William Maragagos. No charges have been filed.
"All I wanted was $50 for a room and some new clothes and a few dollars to get a new start," said the 5-foot-11, 150-pound beauty. "I was flat broke."
Mrs. Gottfried won the Miss Colorado Jaycee title last July, as blonde Dixie Ann Dickes of Pueblo, Colo.
When two patrolmen arrested her late Monday night at nearby Aurora, her hair was long, unkempt and dyed black. She was dressed in slacks and a rough shirt.
Records at her home town of Pueblo show she was fined $124 last November for fighting and pouring beer on two policemen who attempted to arrest her in a tavern.
Mrs. Gottfried was arrested less than 15 minutes after an Aurora drugstore was robbed at gunpoint of $131 and narcotics.
She admitted she had robbed a Denver hotel early Monday of $17.
The 11th beauty said her husband, William D. Gottfried, 23, is in the Illinois Prison for the Criminally Insane. He was convicted of kidnapping a policeman, Maragagos said.
"He'd just raise Cain if he knew about this," she said.

Parole Board May Ban Recommendation

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Pardons and Parole Board may quit asking local law enforcement officers and judges for recommendations on prisoners up for parole.
Board Chairman Ladd Sadler revealed yesterday the board had discussed abandoning this long standing policy at a May 6 meeting and would make a final decision June 6.
Sadler said some circuit judges, prosecuting attorneys and sheriffs wanted to be rid of the responsibility of making recommendations.
"And I agreed," he said. "After all, the final responsibility for paroles rests with the board. We catch it when a parolee goes sour."
The recommendations practice frequently has involved the board in disputes when it went against the suggestions of local officials.

Ike and Nixon to Aid GOP Campaigners

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the Soviet Union seems to be pushing a propaganda drive in seeking admission of Red satellite nations to the Geneva foreign ministers conference.
Eisenhower told a news conference he is very hopeful the Russians will abandon any such propaganda tactics so the conference can get down to fruitful negotiations.
Eisenhower had been asked to evaluate the Soviet efforts thus far to win seats at Geneva for Communist East Germany, Poland and Czechoslovakia. Those efforts have kept the foreign ministers conference from getting to discussion of real problems.
Eisenhower replied it is very difficult to find out what is going on behind someone else's forehead.
As for the wheat surplus problem, the President said it is worsening. Instead of improving, the government will have 3.5 billion dollars invested in surplus wheat by mid-year, he said, and action must be taken speedily to revise the program.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Army Engineers said yesterday bids would be sought sometime this month for construction of six Nike Hercules guided missile battery installations at sites near Little Rock, Fayetteville and Shreveport.
Col. A. M. Jacoby, district engineer, gave no specific date for the bid request, but said bids on the Fayetteville project would be opened June 23 and those for Little Rock June 24.
Two bases, costing about one million dollars each, will be located in each of the three areas.
The Little Rock units will be located near Conway and Cabot. The Fayetteville facilities are to be built near Manila and Steele, Mo.

Highway Dept. Opens Bids on Nine Jobs

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Highway Commission today opened bids on nine road and bridge projects in a near record letting.
Total of apparent low bids was placed unofficially at $5,892,251.
Included were bids for initial construction on a 5.57-mile four-lane bypass south of Little Rock as part of new federal interstate Route 30.
The bypass will extend from the south end of the future six-lane expressway through east Little Rock southwesterly to join present Highway 67-70 near the intersection of Chicot Road.
The bypass work was divided into three separate jobs.
W. R. Fairchild Construction Co. of Farmville, La., was apparent low bidder on the most costly job—grading of 1,603 miles and four long bridges in the section nearest the expressway. Its bid was $1,832,694.
S. M. Dixon of Warren and D. B. Hill of Little Rock submitted a joint apparent low bid of $920,407 for the section nearest Highway 67-70, and Hill and Michels, Inc., of Warren, joined in the apparent low of $991,341 for the intervening section.
Other jobs by counties with apparent low bidders:
Phillips — Access road of 5.83-mile from Highway 20 in Helena to the future Mississippi River Bridge; S. M. Dixon, $304,422.
Sharp — 2.36 miles of surfacing on Highway 58 from Williford to intersection with Highway 63; D. F. Jones Construction Co., Little Rock, $83,025.
Union — 4.651 miles of grading for El Dorado East bypass road, Highway 167, from the American Legion just south of El Dorado northward on new location to connect with existing highway near Lion Oil Co. tank farm, north of El Dorado; Graves Bros., Pine Bluff, $392,957.
Clark — New Ouachita River Bridge and approaches on Highway 51 at Arkadelphia; H. N. Reynolds Construction Co., Camden, $188,416.
Mississippi — 8.341 miles of grading, interchange structures and surfacing between Basel and Kelsor as part of new interstate route 55; Orange Construction Co., Fort Worth, Texas, $1,229,371.
Clay — Bridges over slicks Nos. 10 and 20 on Highway 40 west of Boydsville; D. F. Jones Construction Co., $78,217.

President Asks Quick Increase in Gasoline Tax

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower called today for quick congressional action boosting the gasoline tax, revising the costly support and control program, and providing additional home loan insurance authority.
The President told his news conference a special message urging the three-way speedup would go to the capitol today.
The country's rising prosperity will be damaged, Eisenhower said, if the Federal Housing Administration's program is allowed to lapse for lack of the six billion dollar additional insuring authority he asked in January.
More thousands of men will be jobless, the President went on, unless new revenues are provided to keep the massive highway building program going.
He noted that the existing highway bill permits no more construction in any year than the funds available will pay for in that year.
Costs now are outstripping the income from highway user taxes, and Eisenhower has requested that the federal gasoline levy be boosted from 3 to 4 1/2 cents. Congress has seemed little disposed to comply. Some legislators have indicated they would prefer to meet the costs for a time from general revenues.
Eisenhower committed to a balanced budget in fiscal 1960, ignored the later possibility in his news conference remarks, and emphatically renewed his appeal that the budget be brought into balance.
As for the wheat surplus problem, the President said it is worsening. Instead of improving, the government will have 3.5 billion dollars invested in surplus wheat by mid-year, he said, and action must be taken speedily to revise the program.

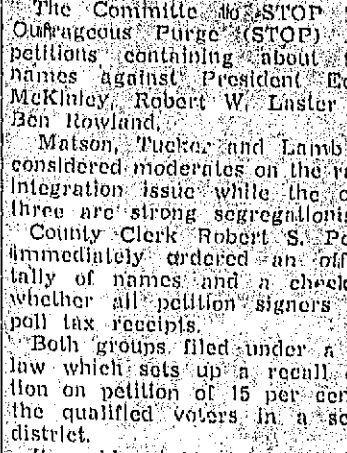

Recall Petitions Filed Against Entire Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Recall petitions were filed yesterday against all six members of the Little Rock School Board.
The League of Central High mothers reached the county clerk's office just before it closed with 7,150 signatures seeking recall of board members Russell Matson, Everett Tucker Jr. and Ed Lamb. The Committee to Stop This Outrageous Purge (STOP) filed petitions containing about 6,000 names against President Ed F. McKinley, Robert W. Laster and Ben Rowland.
Matson, Tucker and Lamb are considered moderates on the racial integration issue while the other three are strong segregationists.
County Clerk Robert S. Peters immediately ordered an official tally of names and a check on whether all petition signers held valid tax receipts.
"Both groups filed under a 1958 law which sets up a recall election on petition of 15 per cent of the qualified voters in a school district."
It could not be determined immediately how many signatures were needed because of a technicality concerning school district boundaries. Estimates ranged from 6,200 to 7,000.
Peters said that if enough signatures were eliminated from either set of petitions to leave a group total of names under 7,000 he would ask Pulaski Prosecutor Frank Holt to determine how many voters there are in the district.
The recall movement began last Wednesday after McKinley, Rowland and Laster voted for two at-large teachers and administrators, mainly for what they called "integrationist tendencies." STOP was launched to seek recall of these three board members.
The Mothers League promptly moved against Tucker, Matson and Lamb, who opposed the purge.
Dr. Drew F. Agar, STOP president, said the filing of the Mothers League petition indicated "the people who actually signed those petitions are actually the shabby, ignorant, backward, dedicated teachers."
Mrs. Margaret Jackson, president of the Mothers League, said, "I'm sure the people of the city will stand firm against race mixing of our schools." Mrs. Jackson's group contends public reaction against the purge was fostered by integrationists.
County Election Commission Chairman E. A. Henry said he would ask Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett for a ruling to clarify several legal questions concerning the recall law.

Survivors praised the cool-headed work of two stewardesses in preventing panic and helping passengers get out of the wreck. The stewardesses, Nancy S. Marshall, 20, and Evelyn Marie Viera, 19, both of Alexandria, Va., were treated at a hospital for cuts and released.

The pilot, Richard W. Olin, 32, of Falls Church, Va., and co-pilot, Charles Spott, of Springfield, Va., both were hospitalized. Newsman were not permitted to question them.

BALTIMORE (AP)—A Capital Viscount turboprop airplane, blowing apart during a nonstop flight from New York to Atlanta late Tuesday, scattering wreckage and the bodies of all 31 aboard over fields plowed fields east of Baltimore. Just 48 minutes earlier, another Capital airplane, a four-engine Constellation, plunged over a 200-foot embankment at the Charles Ton, W. Va. airport, 300 miles to the west, as it came in for a landing. It immediately burst into flames. Two bodies were removed from the charred wreckage and six persons were hospitalized.

An official at the Civil Aeronautics Board said it was the first time in his memory that a single airplane had had two fatal crashes in one day.

The weather may have played a part in both crashes.

The Baltimore-area accident occurred during a local thunder squall.

Flight engineers and others said they thought the plane was caught in a severe updraft or downdraft.

Housing Bill May Get by Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House committee roadblock holding up House consideration of a multi-billion-dollar housing bill may be broken late this week.

Chairman Howard W. Smith (R-Va.) reportedly is ready to switch his vote and permit the controversial bill to come before the House.

Smith was one of six committee members who voted against clearing the measure last month when it was considered by the 12-man group. All four Republicans and another Democrat, William Colmer of Mississippi, joined Smith in blocking the measure.

The cost tag placed on the present bill by its Democratic backers is $2,100,000,000. Republicans contend the cost would be $5,800,000,000 over the long term, including an estimated $377 million in principal and interest for 40-year public housing subsidies.

which pulled off part of a wing, the fuel lines in the wing snapped spraying fuel into the burning engine. The quick combustion was a low order explosion which tore the plane to pieces.

Rain was still falling slightly at Charleston when the big Constellation came in for a landing at the airport, built by silencing off the top of a hill. The plane seemed to turn before it slowed down, witnesses said, and it tumbled off the brink of the hill. It immediately burst into flames.

A 20-year-old stewardess, Nancy Marshall, was credited with getting many passengers out of the flaming wreckage. She forced open a door after several passengers had been unable to push it open.

"It's not a door that swings out," she explained. "It's a sliding door. All I did was roll it back."

The air tragedy near Baltimore came without warning.

Walter Bevans, 70, had just been driven from the yard to the porch by the late afternoon thunder shower.

"I started inside the house," he said, "and then I saw this terrible light and smoke. I saw this man lying in the field. I ran back into the house and told my daughter-in-law to call for ambulances."

"I saw one big piece of the plane burning in the air, and there was smoke coming from two other parts which sort of drifted off and away."

Not far away, a group of youngsters were playing ball. Suddenly debris and bodies began falling all around them. They ran for home and cover.

Pieces of the Viscount were scattered for more than a mile. It took more than three hours for droves of police and volunteers to collect the bodies. The last found was a stewardess, buried under one of the sections.

The four engines were found within a few hundred yards. The propeller of one was missing.

Va. reportedly is ready to switch his vote and permit the controversial bill to come before the House.

Extension of Hearing Asked by SW Bell

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. today asked for another 30 days in which to reply to a proposal for a three million dollar year reduction in its Arkansas rates.

The company filed the request for an extension with the Public Service Commission, which in several weeks ago directed Southwestern Bell to "show cause" why its rates should not be cut.

Time for filing a reply was to have expired today.

A Southwestern Bell spokesman said the PSC had promised to answer its request this afternoon. The spokesman said the utility had been too busy with other cases to prepare an answer to the PSC order.

The PSC said in its order that Southwestern Bell's year earnings of about three million dollars more than was justified.

DOROTHY DIX

Has Girl Finally Found Her Long-Lost Father?

Dear Dorothy Dix: A few weeks ago I got a job in a small factory. My duties, which are varied, include carrying messages and delivering paychecks throughout the plant. On one of these errands I saw a man who I am convinced is my father. Mother always told me my father died in a car crash shortly after my birth on that she would tell me more about him when I was older. Well, I am now 17 and still don't know anything about my father. Mother keeps a picture of him on her dresser and she always says that she has a picture of him that makes me think I was mislaid about my father's death, that he is alive and working quite close to me. I know this man isn't married and he has limited to friends of mine about a romantic past involving a child born out of wedlock. How can I find out for sure if this is my father? — Nan

Dear Nan: First of all, tell your mother about your discovery. Ask: "If you have been told the true story about your father from the facts you present, it seems quite possible that a sad story will have a happy ending." Continued on Page 12 ve

Dodgers Take 4 in Row to Move Into First

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

A four-game winning streak isn't much, but in the National League it means first place.

The Los Angeles Dodgers won their fourth in a row Tuesday night, beating Philadelphia 3-1 behind the five-hit pitching of young Danny McDevitt. That gave the Dodgers a half-game lead over Milwaukee although the two clubs are tied percentage wise (.600). The Braves lost 7-3 to the Chicago Cubs.

St. Louis kept Cincinnati from making it a virtual three way tie by beating the Reds 7-4. Pittsburgh defeated San Francisco 6-5 in 12 innings.

In the American League, first place Cleveland beat New York 7-0, the Chicago White Sox won 4-3 in 12 innings at Boston and Washington defeated Detroit 7-4 as Harmon Killebrew drove in five runs with his 11th and 12th homers, tops in the AL. The Kansas City Athletics game was rained out.

No one has been able to put together more than a four-game string in the National League since the Dodgers now have won seven of their last 10, and McDevitt has two of the three complete games the pitching staff has produced in that span. The 28-year-old lefty (2-1) had a two-hit shutout until the eighth inning when Willie Jones hit his seventh home run. McDevitt walked none, fanned six.

McDevitt singled home the Dodgers' first run in the fifth after losing Gene Conley (1-1) had pitched, passed Don Zimmer, the Braves' ace, twice in this frame, getting the other on an error. Duke Snider singled home the final run in the eighth off reliever Jack Meyer.

The Cubs handed five-game winner Low Burdette his second loss in a row, scoring five in the ninth at Chicago on a home run by Walt Moryn and pinch hitter Earl Averill's first grand slam. Tony Taylor also homered off Burdette. Don Elston (1-1) won it with one inning of scoreless relief.

Rookie right hander Gary Blaylock hit a two-run homer and won his first for the Cards, although needing Bill Smith's relief after Vada Pinson's two-run double finished the Reds' scoring in the seventh. Brooks Lawrence (3-2) was the loser after winning three in a row.

The Pirates shut out on three hits for six innings by Johnny Antonelli, put it away with three runs in the 12th. Gordon Jones (1-2), fourth of six Giant pitchers, was the loser. Bonnie Daniels, who lost his first decision as a starter Monday night, won this one in relief, although roughed up for two runs in the 13th on two singles and three errors. Two of the boots were by Bob Clement, whose single proved the clincher for the Pirates.

Killebrew Hot, Senators Take Detroit 7-4

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two months ago Harmon Killebrew figured he'd have a successful year if he stayed with the Washington Senators all season.

At the moment he leads the American League in home runs, with a dozen, in runs batted in, with 28, and in runs scored, with 28.

In five previous tries with the Senators, since he became their first bonus baby in 1954, his total home run output was only 11, his RBI total was 30, and he had scored just 29 runs.

Milwaukee, although the leaders in the National League, lost to the Washington Senators Tuesday night, 7-4, in a game that was a pair of homers for Killebrew, a 7-4 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

That left the surprising Senators fourth, three games behind Cleveland's first place Indians, who defeated the New York Yankees 7-0. Chicago's White Sox retained second place, 1 1/2 games back, with a 4-3, 12-inning victory at Boston. Kansas City's game at Baltimore was rained out.

In the National League, Los Angeles defeated Philadelphia 3-1 and gained a half-game edge over Milwaukee, although the Dodgers are tie in percentage (.600). The Braves were beaten, 7-3, by the Chicago Cubs. St. Louis whipped Cincinnati 7-4 and Pittsburgh beat San Francisco 6-5 in 12 innings.

Frank Lary had the Senators blanked on three hits until the sixth inning, when rookie Bob Allison, who drove in the other two Washington runs, doubled. Killebrew followed with a two-run, 420-foot sock. Allison's sacrifice fly and Killebrew's second homer put it away in the seventh against Ray Narleski, after losing reliever Dave Sisler (0-1) had loaded the bases with a pair of walks.

Unbeaten Cal McLish won his fifth for the Indians, who made it with the help of four unearned runs. Rocky Colavito, who had four hits and Woody Middle homered for the Indians against loser Art Ditmar (0-2). Mickey Vernon, Elston Howard and Yogi Berra homered for the Yanks before McLish, 33, gave way to the heat and humidity at New York. Rookie Jim Perry saved it, blanking the champs on one hit while striking out four over the last two frames.

Cleveland's winning run was set up in the fifth on an error by Berra, who had set a major league record for catchers in his last game with a string of 148 errorless games since July 28, 1957.

All the White Sox runs came on homers. Starting right hander Dick Donovan hit a two-run shot in the second inning and Al Smith put an end to nine scoreless frames for Chicago with a two-run homer in the 12th off losing reliever Murray Wall (1-1). Rookie Rodolfo Alías (2-0) was the winner, although giving up Jackie Jensen's eighth homer in the Boston 12th.

Fort Smith Quits Meet of Champs

BASIN

Warrior Basin

Guns exploded simultaneously, but Furlong's kept going as he triggered two additional bullets into Erben's sprawled body.

A backwash of tension lightened all his muscles with an aching intensity that was like utter fatigue, yet the sight of Er Overmire's blanket-draped shape on the floor coveled his mind with a need for haste. Turning toward the doorway and seeing Gillum beside Fern, he commanded, "Don't stand dawling. Drag me out of the way while I rise up a wagon for Ed."

Overmire was breathing when they started him out, but his slack jawed face held the waxy pallor of death. When Furlong placed a tarp over his friend, to protect him from the rain, it was like covering a dead man.

Turning to Polky, he said, "Go get Doc Slattery — have him at Ed's place by the time this wagon arrives."

It was a slow, gruesome chore, during which gagging sickness forced Gillum to brief intervals of uselessness, when the corpse-laden Empire horses had been haxed out of the yard. Furlong transferred his saddle to Ed Overmire's bay pony. Ed, he reflected, wouldn't be needing the bay for a long time, perhaps never.

Afterward, drinking strong black coffee, Furlong had prepared, Polky said, "Catch up with Fern and take care of things at Ed's place."

He was outside, climbing into saddle when a wagon with three slicker-draped occupants came into the yard. For a moment, while he peered through the misty drizzle of rain, Furlong's drawn gun remained leveled, then identifying Grace Kimble, her father and Mary Overmire, he sheathed the pistol.

As the wagon came up, Mrs. Overmire called anxiously, "How is Ed?"

"He's on the way home, in Fern's wagon," Furlong said. "We sent for —"

Mary Overmire, fainting, fell back against Grace.

Gillum hurried out with the coffee pot and a cup. In the seemingly endless interval it took to revive her, Luke Kimble announced censurously, "It is written in the Bible that you cannot save your home or the homes of your friends by fighting."

Furlong shrugged, having no answer to that, nor any way to express the sympathy he felt for Mary Overmire who now straightened up and began to sob.

"Your husband isn't dead," Grace Gillum told her. "We sent for Doc Slattery to meet him at your place."

As Kimble urged his team into a wide turn that brought the wagon close to Furlong, Grace peered up at him and said sharply, "If Ed dies the blame will be yours."

Snow flurries whitened Rimrock Divide, sleety rain drenched the lower elevations, and wild rumors ran the length and breadth of Warrior Basin.

One report, circulated in Junction, was to the effect that Furlong's raiders had slaughtered 700 head of Empire steers in retaliation.

He will have a plane pick him up at Harrison tomorrow for a flight to Peoria. He said he will return to Arkansas Saturday and probably will be back in his office by Wednesday.

Tentative plans to include Canada on his trip out of the state were cancelled.

Man Found Shot to Death at Mulberry

MAN BURN, ARK. (AP) — A 34-year-old farm laborer was found shot to death at Mulberry last night shortly after his wife had been wounded gravely.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Neal identified the dead man as Nolan J. Williams.

Neal said Mrs. Faye Williams, 34, was struck in the side of the face with the charge from a shot gun after an argument with Williams on the porch of her parents' home at Mulberry.

Williams' body was found about three-fourths of a mile from the house. He had been killed with a shotgun blast in the face.

Neal said an investigation was continuing.

Peter Lorre Suffers a Heart Attack

GRANADA, Spain (AP) — Hungarian-American movie actor Peter Lorre suffered a heart attack today and was reported in critical condition. The 5-year-old film "The Man Who Knew Too Much" is here making a movie.

Against it of us, Red Ingle reflected.

"Jim Dawson used his big finger to tally Empire's crew," he said. "Thirteen added to 21 equal 34 men."

Against it of us, Red Ingle reflected.

"Jim Dawson corrected, 'Mice ain't here!'"

Jim Dawson crouched on his heels near Buchanan's knees, supper fire, watched doubt have its way with his four companions.

This was a turning point in the fight against Empire. The strategy so far had been simple: wait for Pardee's brush-poppers to make a sizable gather, then erase their efforts with a stampedede.

Simple and so successful that the roundup crew was still working the southwest section of Pardee's range.

But now, with a second crew of seasoned fighting men at Cleo Veto's disposal, the whole pattern of this thing would change.

Buchanan Pyre glanced apprehensively over his shoulder, and now Ted Buford inquired, "You reckon we could make a stand here?"

For a long moment the simmering of steak in a skillet was the only sound. Then Dawson asked, "What you got in mind?"

"A break-up," Furlong said. "A four-way split east and west, north and south. But no permanent camps."

"You mean—no organized fight against Empire?" Dawson asked, frankly surprised.

"I don't mean that at all," Dawson long explained. "Well, damn, the same game—we've been playing it but we won't be punched at all. Only one end or any one place. Each split will hang out in a certain territory."

"But I show do we keep in touch?" Red Ingle demanded.

"Mc," Furlong said. "I'll fill you when it's time to slide. (To Be Continued)

Segregation Leader Fails to List Reds

By Wick Temple

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A segregationist attorney who had vowed to pinpoint Communist influences among teachers and other local groups gave up a chance to address a Parent-Teachers Association meeting last night after an argument over debate procedure.

Amis Guthridge, lawyer for the Capital Citizens Council, appeared at the meeting in Pulaski Heights High School with the announced purpose of revealing alleged subversive connections of some of the teachers affected by a recent school board purge.

He disclosed nothing.

A crowd of about 400 P-TA members and an equal number of visitors cheered when Guthridge sat down after declining an offer to speak. He objected to the fact that no one would talk in favor of a resolution assailing the purge ordered by three segregationist school board members.

Guthridge had said he wanted to debate the resolution, which he opposed.

The resolution was adopted by a overwhelming margin.

Guthridge was not without support. At least 25 persons, voted against the resolution.

Across town at Jefferson School, one of the school board members under fire, Robert W. Laster spoke for 15 minutes in defense of the purge.

Then he sat down and his listeners voted unanimously to oust him from the board.

Four PTA meetings were held last night. All but one adopted resolutions criticizing the segregationist board members who voted to dismiss 44 teachers, administrators and secretaries.

One group adjourned without taking any action.

Guthridge said he would speak after proponents of the recall motion had their say. None arose.

"Well, if there are none speaking for the resolution I won't speak against it," Guthridge said.

Someone called for the question and the resolution was passed.

After the meeting Guthridge told newsmen: "It was a highly organized integrationist political meeting. It was a trap that I wasn't anxious to get into."

Then he said "I was going to name Communist frontiers. I was going to give a very entertaining

Land Office Closed at Russellville

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bureau of Land Management announced yesterday the closing of its office at Russellville, Ark.

Laster Election Case Set June 15

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Resumption of a trial contesting Traffic Judge Robert W. Laster's election to the Little Rock School Board was set yesterday for June 15 in Pulaski Circuit Court.

Plaintiff in the suit is Mrs. Charles W. Stephens, who lost the race last December by 111 votes.

She contends that a number of votes cast were invalid, and alleges many were cast by persons who did not have poll tax slips or voted in wards where they did not reside.

Public Lashing Bill May Be Vetoed

DOVER, Del. (AP)—Republican Gov. J. Caleb Boggs said today he is vetoing a bill which would make public lashing mandatory for convicted robbers, and is calling for abolition of the whipping post altogether.

He described this form of punishment as "barbaric and inhuman," said it was no deterrent to crime.

The governor is sending his message to the Democrat-controlled Legislature, he is in Washington.

The House, voting 22-3, passed the Senate's version of the bill April 29.

The bill provides for 20 to 40 lashes for the first offense and no fewer than 30 for each conviction thereafter.

The whippings, under the measure, would be administered in a prison yard to which the public would be admitted.

He said he had a list of names of Communists, but he declined to release it to the press.

He would not say how many names he had.

Speaking of the majority of the audience that booed him, Guthridge said: "Some of them were my friends but it looks as if their affection for me has waned."

Rory Calhoun Finds Audience as Texan

By Vernon Scott

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Rory Calhoun, who jumped from movies to TV last year in "The Texan," has no regrets. He's found an audience at last.

"I wanted to move into television five years ago," Calhoun says, "but studio contracts kept me from making the change. There were millions of people who wouldn't go to see one of my pictures for free."

"But the same folks will stay at home to watch my TV show."

His Audience Doubles.

"Every Monday night there are 30 million viewers in front of their sets and 45 per cent of them are tuned to 'The Texan.' That's more people than ever went to see all of my 60 movies combined."

"Come to think of it, I only made two good pictures. 'With a Song in My Heart' and 'How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying.' The rest were terrible."

"Many a movie star refuses my offers for fear of killing themselves off in pictures. But Calhoun thinks differently."

"I don't know about the others, but I've had several offers for good roles in movies in the past year," he said. "Better pictures than I was making before I started the series. I turned them down because of the time limitations."

Will Portray Fighter.

"There's a possibility an actor can become too closely associated with his TV role. On the other hand you might build up a better following. There is no way to tell until you see the box office receipts."

Rory cranks up another series of 39 "Texans" in July. Until then he will loaf and appear in a pair of Doolittle Playhouse programs.

"One of them is about a prize fighter," he grinned. "I want to have any doubts doing the fight scenes. When you've been in as many reform schools as I have you learn to handle your dukes."

"When I'm through with those commitments I'm going to take a two-month vacation. My first in 14 years. I think I've got it coming."

Des Arc's name is French and refers to "the bow" or "band" of White River.

Jobless Dip Seen as a Good Sign

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican congressional leaders and President Eisenhower reviewed today the latest employment figures and agreed that—

They reflect solid progress toward complete recovery from the business recession.

They heighten hopes that the administration's budget for the fiscal year starting July 1 can be kept in balance.

They indicate the administration stands against big spending programs "aimed to create employment."

The GOP leaders gave this report to newsmen after their regular weekly conference with Eisenhower.

They said the million-plus climb in employment to a total of 68 million while joblessness was declining 736,000 during the month ending April 16 was a source of considerable satisfaction to the President.

Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, the House GOP chief, remarked—in a jab at the Democratic majority—that "we are mighty happy now that we didn't push the panic button when some people were wanting us to." That was a reference to a proposal by some Democrats that spending programs be started to combat joblessness.

The Senate Republican leaders, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, said the improving picture in the job market heightens hope that the administration's budget can be kept in balance.

Dirksen recalled a remark a few weeks ago by Secretary of Labor Mitchell that he would "feel my hat" if unemployment had not declined below three million by October. The latest figures listed joblessness at 3,027,000. Dirksen remarked with a grin that he now is confident that Mitchell "will not have to chop his chapeau."

At the White House conference the President and the leaders also discussed administration plans for turning the financing of certain programs back to the states in exchange for relinquishing some federal tax revenue to the states.

Those programs include federal grants for vocational education,

KSC Denied Revival of Tax Hearing

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Kansas City Southern Railway Co. yesterday denied a request for a rehearing on the appeal for a three-million-dollar cut in its 1957 assessment was denied yesterday by the Arkansas Supreme Court.

The assessment was reduced by the court last month by about $38,000 to $4,101,000. KSC then filed a petition for rehearing, contending that the court had made certain errors and the reduction should have been greater.

Defendants in the action were Claude Machen, subcontractor who projected and the architectural firm of Erhart, Blanchard and Rauch. The awards were against the architects and Machen who exonerated from damages.

News Briefs

ECLES, England. (AP)—Gangs of white and Negro youths clashed with knives and brass knuckles in a bloody street fight here Sunday night. Two white boys were hospitalized with stab wounds. A Negro was treated for head injuries. Police broke up the fight and hauled in several youths for questioning.

BERLIN (AP)—Allied leaders gathered here today to honor the men and women who beat the Soviet blockade of West Berlin 10 years ago.

Soviet barriers on the highway, rail, corridor to West Germany came down one minute after midnight May 12, 1949. West Berliners planned solemn ceremonies Tuesday to recall the moment.

Because of the new Communist threat against West Berlin, the long-planned anniversary celebration was turned into a new demonstration of Western support for the isolated city.

ANUA, British West Indies

(AP)—U.S. military personnel Sunday found the nose cone of a Jupiter rocket fired May 6 from Cape Canaveral 1,500 miles away. The 60-foot missile was lobbed over the Atlantic at a water target near Antigua island in what was described as a highly successful flight.

(AP)

HENDERSONVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Samuel M. Williams, who worked in key positions for William Randolph Hearst and Joseph Pulitzer in his 50 years as a newspaperman, died Monday at 90.

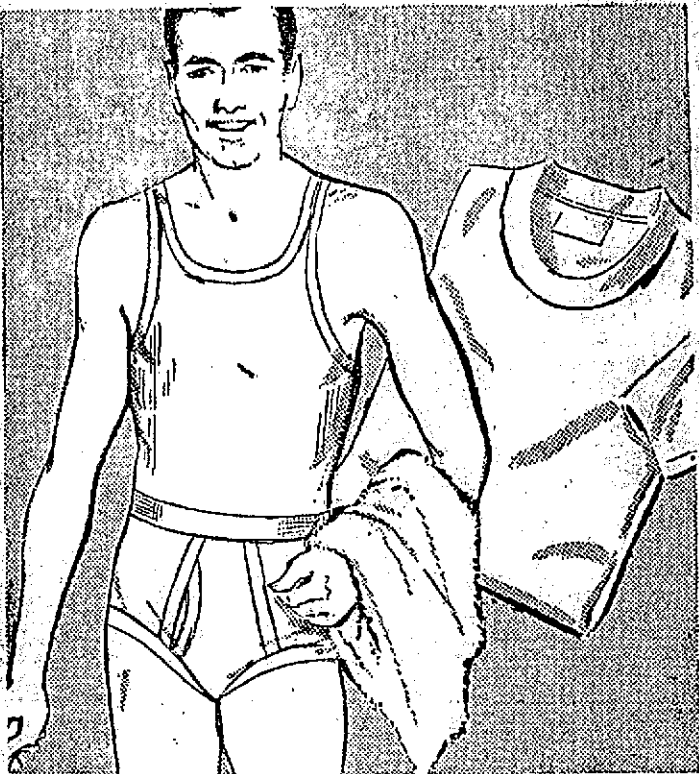

He came here when he retired 10 years ago. Williams, a native of Norwalk, Ohio, began his career as a reporter on the old Cleveland Press. Later he became city editor. Subsequently he joined Joseph Pulitzer's old New York World.

In 1931, he went to St. Paul, Minn., as editor-in-chief of the Pioneer Press and Evening Dispatch. He later returned to New York as manager of the Daily Newspaper Code Authority. Survivors include his widow, Claire Vanderpool Smith Williams.
